

Corporate Membership Information

Benefits of Basic 12-Month Membership:

- 12-month subscription to the ACCCA Reports
- 12-month link on ACCCA Web site via online directory
- Reduced rates for newsletter advertising
- Reduced rates for sponsorship and conference options
- Opportunity to present at conference sessions and special events
- Opportunity to have articles selected for publication in ACCCA Reports
- Opportunity to participate on corporate relations commission
- Opportunity to be connected with ACCCA's network of over 250 campus reps and commission volunteers.
- Opportunity for alliance agreement—generally, to participate in each other's initiatives – access for the corporate partner, and program enhancements for ACCCA.

Level One Membership: Independent Contractor

- Qualification: Independent contractors with community colleges or community college administrators.
- Cost: $500 annual dues
- Benefits: Basic membership

Level Two Membership: Small Business Associate

- Qualification: Small businesses with ten or fewer employees. Must have only one location and an annual budget under $500,000.
- Cost: $1,000 annual dues
- Benefits: Basic membership

Level Three Membership: Company Associate

- Qualification: Large business with over ten employees.
- Cost: $1,500 annual dues
- Benefits: Basic membership

Level Four Membership: ACCCA Corporate Partner

- Qualification: Established corporate members in one of the above three levels and a previous contribution over $1,500 (i.e., purchased conference options, advertising or other event sponsorship in a given fiscal year).
- Cost: Annual dues as indicated above and $1,500 in in-kind contributions as described above.
- Benefits: Basic membership benefits & alliance agreement option