

Dr. Amir A. Law

ACCCA Board
Biographical Profile

Dr. Amir Law currently serves as an Academic Dean in the California Community College system and has also served as a dean on the Student Services side house in the CCC system. He holds an MBA in Entrepreneurial Business, an MA in Athletic Coaching and Administration, and a Doctorate in Educational Leadership with a specialty in Community Colleges.

Over the course of his career, he has served as faculty in business; led the academic areas of Business, Economics, Health, Work Experience, Kinesiology, Nutrition, Marketing, Communications, and Performing Arts; and led the student services areas of counseling, financial aid, admissions, equity, first year experience, second experience, veterans' services, international student programs, outreach, housing, athletics, and student success.

Amir has also presented at numerous local, regional, national, and international conferences, workshops, symposia, and has earned Research Awards from the University of Michigan's National Center for Institutional Diversity as well as the American Education Research Association. His areas of expertise include outreach and recruitment; non-cognitive characteristics as they relate to student success; learning communities; and curriculum development and assessment.

Dr. Law is an active member in ACCCA having recently served as a member of The Management Development Commission. He currently serves as a member of The Commission for Finance, Legislation, and Advocacy. Additionally, Amir has participated in the Great Deans program and is looking forward to continue his career serving the California Community College system.